

THRIFT SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarship Name	Scholarship Description	Who is it for?
AICPA Legacy Scholarships	The AICPA Legacy Scholars program is designed to help students of different backgrounds become CPAs by assisting with the cost of their college education. The program also provides scholars with educational and professional development opportunities throughout the year.	High School, College, Graduate Students
IMA Memorial Education Fund Scholarships	Offered by the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) to support students pursuing accounting or finance careers.	College Students, Graduate Students
National Association of Black Accountants (NABA) National Scholarship Program	To be eligible, you must self-identify as a Black business leader and be an active NABA student member currently enrolled at an accredited 2-year or 4-year U.S. institution. Additionally, you must be able to demonstrate continued enrollment for 2024-2025 and display overall academic excellence.	College Students
The Association of Latino Professionals For America (ALPFA) National Scholarship Program	ALPFA offers scholarships funded by donors with 100% going directly to student tuition, available to full-time students of all backgrounds and majors at U.S. and Puerto Rico institutions who maintain a 2.5+ GPA. Rising sophomores through graduate students must submit a resume and financial aid forms for consideration, with awards determined by judges' scores.	College Students

The National Society of Accountants (NSA) Scholarship Foundation	The NSA Scholarship Foundation offers various accounting scholarships ranging from $500-$2,000 for U.S. and Canadian citizens enrolled in accredited colleges with a 3.0+ GPA, with special awards including the renewable Stanley H. Stearman Award for NSA members' relatives and the Educational Tree Scholarship for children/grandchildren of NSA members. The application period runs from January 15, 2024 to April 30, 2024, with recipients notified by June 7 and checks issued August 15. Selection criteria include academic achievements, leadership, community involvement, honors, work experience, and financial need (for Arizona applicants only). Recipients must enroll as students in fall 2024 and continue the entire academic year without interruption unless approved by the sponsor.	High School, College Students
The Hagan Scholarship Foundation	The Hagan Scholarship is a nationwide need-based merit scholarship designed to help students graduate debt-free by providing up to $7,500 per semester for 8 consecutive semesters to students from households making under $100,000, along with additional benefits like free workshops, brokerage accounts, and study abroad opportunities. Recipients who graduate college can apply for a Hagan Graduate Scholarship worth up to $7,500 per semester for four additional semesters.	High School Students
The Side Hustlin' Student Scholarship Opportunity	The College Investor's Side Hustlin' Student Scholarship offers a $2,500 first-place award and $1,000 runner-up prize to students who demonstrate initiative in earning money while pursuing their education. Applicants must submit a 1,000+ word essay about their side hustle experience between January 1 and March 31, 2025, focusing on their story, effort, and goals rather than the amount earned. The scholarship is open to both undergraduate and graduate students at technical, community, and four-year colleges, with winners to be selected on July 31, 2025, and their essays published on The College Investor website.	High School, College Students

I
Earn to Learn Scholarship	The Earn to Learn scholarship is a matched-savings program where eligible students save $500 annually and receive an 8:1 match, creating $4,500 per year for education expenses. The program combines these funds with financial training and success coaching to help students graduate with minimal debt from various postsecondary institutions, including universities, community colleges, and trade schools. Available across multiple educational partners including Arizona State University, Michigan State University, and Western Governors University, the program has demonstrated strong success with a 90% first-year retention rate and has disbursed over $28 million in funds to students, with 63% being first-generation college students and 84% being BIPOC scholars.	High School Students
The ScoreNavigator Financial Literacy Scholarship	The ScoreNavigator Financial Literacy Scholarship supports financial education by awarding high school juniors and seniors from low-income backgrounds who maintain a 3.0+ GPA and can write about their personal financial experiences and future plans. This scholarship aims to encourage smart financial decision- making among youth who may lack access to proper financial literacy tools and information at home.	High School Students
Cashtelligent Financial Literacy Scholarship	This $1,000 scholarship aims to promote financial literacy and positive money management habits among students at any academic level (high school through graduate school) and parents of students enrolling in accredited U.S. colleges. The scholarship can be used for any field of study, with a focus on developing practical financial skills that will benefit students during college and beyond.	High School, College, Graduate Students
Banzai's Life Literacy Scholarship	Banzai's Life Literacy Scholarship offers five $2,000 awards to high school juniors and seniors (age 16+) who demonstrate commitment to financial literacy by completing two Banzai games through their free platform. Applicants must plan to enroll in an accredited U.S. college, university, or trade school by 2029-2030, with the scholarship aiming to combine financial education with student aid to promote academic success.	High School Students

Financial Education PSA Scholarship	High Rise Financial offers a $1,500 Financial Education PSA Scholarship where undergraduate and graduate students create a 1-2 minute video to educate peers about financial literacy. The scholarship requires applicants to post their original video to YouTube and complete a contact form.	HIgh School, College, Graduate Students
SuperMoney's Financial Literacy Scholarship	This scholarship program awards $1,000 twice a year to students who want to help Americans improve their financial wellness through continued education. To qualify, you must be enrolled full-time in high school as a senior or be a part-time or full-time student in a college, graduate school, trade school, or coding bootcamp and have an overall average GPA of at least 3.0. To apply, you need to fill out the form and write an essay.	Hlgh School, College, Graduate Students
The MassMutual Foundation	The MassMutual Foundation is excited to offer a total of $50,000 in 529 college savings gift cards to twenty-two deserving student winners throughout the school year. To enter, students must complete at least three (3) modules from either the FutureSmart or SmartEconomics programs. Participants are also required to submit a short essay (350-500 words) addressing a question about their future and explaining how the financial knowledge gained from these modules can help them achieve their goals and dreams. Parental consent is required for participation.	High School Students
CreditWorthy Scholarship	OneMain Financial will be awarding thirty-six students nationally with $1,000 in educational funding. The Credit Worthy Scholarship is open to U.S. high school students between 13-19 years old who have completed Build: Credit Fundamentals or at least 3 modules of a course offered in the Credit Worthy program presented by OneMain Financial. Students will submit a short essay about what they learned and how the Credit Worthy program by OneMain Financial has made an impact on them for a chance to win.	High School Students